

Aviation Post COVID-19 28th April 2021

COVID-19 has decimated aviation. What is the solution: new technologies, consolidation, improved business models, better resilience planning or reduce air travel for environmental sustainability?

Webinar Programme

NOTE: Times are British Summer Time, add 1 hour for CET

- 12:50 Log onto Teams
- 13:00 Welcome and Introduction
Prof Richard Sharpley (Professor of Tourism and Development, University of Central Lancashire)
- 13:10 Expert Presentations:
Paula Reynier (Senior Lecturer at Leeds Trinity University)
Chris Wild (Head of Airside Operations at Manchester Airport)
Christopher Paling (Centre for Aviation, Transport and the Environment, Manchester Metropolitan University)
Andrew Curry (Director of Futures)
- 14:00 Break
- 14:10 Panel Discussion with questions from audience
- 15:00 Close

Who can attend? Anyone interested in aviation.

How much does it cost? This is a free event.

Where is it? Microsoft Teams.

Who are the organisers? University of Central Lancashire & Manchester Metropolitan University on behalf of the International Tourism Masters Network

Places are limited. Register on Eventbrite starting from 12 April - HERE is the link